General Instructions

1. This exam will consist of two parts: objective and open-ended. Objective questions are in the form of a multiple choice with one correct answer. Open-ended questions require you to write a short paragraph based on your understanding of the Constitution. The exam will be graded over 50 points.

2. The deadline for this exam is on Tuesday, April 21, 11:59 PM. Extensions, if any, will be coursed through official communication channels.

3. Submissions that are last edited before Wednesday, April 15, 11:59PM will receive a 3-point bonus.

4. Use your UP Mail to access the Answer Form and submit your answers. Submissions to the Answer Form will remain editable until the deadline.

5. This exam is open notes—you may consult the 2022 Constitution while answering (in fact, you are encouraged to do so). However, you may not discuss your answers with any other applicant or member before the deadline.

6. If there are any discrepancies between the Answer Form and the Questionnaire, the Answer Form will prevail. In such a case, please contact the AppAff Heads (Azul, Joel, Manuel, & Ericson) to issue a correction.

7. For any concerns or clarifications about the exam, contact any of the AppAff Heads.

8. Practice honour and excellence.
